

4 EASY STEPS FOR TRIPLE-PACKAGING YOUR HORSE'S POO FOR SENDING TO EBW

Name _____
 Specimen _____
 Sender _____
 Date _____
 D.O.M. _____

STEP 1:

Final Egg Count (EC) - Horse Data Sheet

Instructions: A single person should perform the egg count. The person performing the egg count should obtain a minimum of 10 fecal samples and mix thoroughly. The person performing the egg count should use a 10% formalin solution to fix the fecal sample. The person performing the egg count should use a 10% formalin solution to fix the fecal sample. The person performing the egg count should use a 10% formalin solution to fix the fecal sample.

About the Owner:

Name	Contact No.	Email Address

About the Horse:

Name	Age	Gender	Breed	Stable / Sample ID	EC Date

Antelmintic History

Has the horse been treated with any antelmintic in the last 6 months? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If Yes, please specify the antelmintic used: _____

Notes

Signature and Date

Signature: _____ Date: _____

STEP 2:

WARNING: Before handling or disposal, please read the following instructions. This material may contain hazardous substances. Please refer to the instructions for disposal.

Plaintiff's Name:

Address (Use Mailing):

Age:

Date Last Downloaded:

Product Used:

Reason for Use (If Known):

STEP 3:

Place the container and the completed form inside a zip-lock bag and seal the bag. Place the zip-lock bag with its contents into a post pack and seal the envelope.

Note: in summer we recommend sending sample Express Post as normal Australia Post delivery can take 5 days or even longer from some regional areas.

STEP 4:

Make your payment through the Shop at www.evidencebasedworming.com.au and then post your sample to us at:

Evidence Based Worming, PO Box 508, GOOLWA, SA, 5214

PO Box 508, GOOLWA, SA, 5214, Mob: 0410 527745
ABN: 80881618851